Chronic Ramblings

Greetings to you all,

The weather has turned colder, the days are shorter and I seriously cannot think of anything to write.

There was Great Northern War this month, and it seems to have been well attended.

For those who would like to attend, Darton Anniversary is coming up in August. Go to their website for more details.

A few events have been approved this month, and the hope is there will be more bids for next month.

The poor rambling chronicler has come to the end of her sanity, and her column.

Oh yes. My tenure as chronicler is due to expire. Please if you are interested, look to the officers vacancy for more details.

YIS,

Eva y Bwa

Their Excellencies Speak

Unto Our well-beloved populace,

This is a short column, which may be a relief to some of you. The need to attend to things and stuff is sadly pressing.

Firstly, thanks to all of you who travelled to and worked at May Crown tournament. Your service helped to make a very fine event what it was. It is a fine thing to go so far out of your way to help friends and the society.

Thanks also to those of you who fought at May Crown. We salute you all - and in particular Sir Ratbod, who came so close to being the first king of Lochac from the Crescent Isles!

Fighting is not itself service, but every participant in the tournament adds to the pageantry and legitimises the outcome. For every tournament, whether it is local or for the Crown, the more who fight, the better.

Also, let us raise a toast to newer fighters who attended and entered. Oswyn can speak only for himself, but he finds it can be unnerving fighting against people much faster, stronger and experienced than myself - particularly in front of a large audience. No one really wants to be one-shotted in front of all your peers, especially if you have travelled great distances to do so. We have heard only good things about the tournament itself, and the atmosphere of good will and humour with which it was fought. The fighters who attend practice and the artisans who meet any or every week at the hall are doing the barony a service. Your presence is an encouragement and invitation to others to come. You keep up each others' morale. The more of you there are, the more viable the group and its activities can appear to prospective members. The more of you there are, the greater the chance there will be range of skill levels and approaches that will make new people feel comfortable. Even when there are few of you, you are there to answer questions should a curious person choose that morning to come along and observe.

We are not aware of a Yule event planned at this stage. There is still time for some schmuck, erm, kind person to put one together. Failing that, we will see you at Fimbulwinter.

Next month, we will be writing a column on issues around recognition in the SCA, and how to avoid problems with the same.

Yours in service

Oswyn and Isabel Maria

Baron and Baroness of Southron Gaard

Seneschal's Comments

Greetings all,

It's cold and it's sometimes hard to find motivation to get out to practices these days, so that's why it's really great to see so many people coming along anyway to fighter/rapier/A&S/archery practice. A couple of weeks ago we started a series on costuming with the 12th Night Coronation event in mind, beginning with shirts and chemises and had a great turnout. Thank you to Baroness Agnes for organising this, to Baroness Isabel Maria and Her Ladyship Elizabetta for providing the instruction. It was also great to have live music in the background. These sessions will be ongoing I'm sure so I encourage anyone interested to come along.

Last month's council meeting was unfortunately poorly attended, so there are no minutes to share this month. I had eight apologies from officers that were unable to attend, so while it was odd to not have a meeting I doubt we'll have a repeat any time soon. Council meetings are important as they allow us to conduct the business of the group. We do have several events now being proposed including a series of practices starting in July and culminating in an event in September specifically aimed at newcomers. This will start with a bring a friend day which will allow us to demonstrate some of the things we do and give people an insight into the breadth of activities the SCA can offer. If you have friends/family/colleagues that might be interested in the SCA, please look out for when this series will start and bring them along. It's always easier to get involved in a group if you are introduced to it by a friend. Look out for more information to come on this.

Another proposed event is a Viking Day which will include (among other things) a tourney, pot-luck dinner and bardic activities later in September, hosted by Sir Sigurd and Baroness Eleanora. This sounds like a really fun event and will allow people to explore more Viking culture.

Other events are being worked on, including in Wildmoor. If anyone in particular would like to steward an event over Show Weekend please get in touch. Golden Flight has been a great event in recent years as we get close to summer and while we don't have to follow the same format, a camping event around that time of year is a great way to try out things before Canterbury Faire.

Finally, best wishes to those in Wildmoor caught up in the recent bad weather. I haven't heard of anyone being too adversely affected but if anyone had any trouble I hope things dry out soon.

Kind Regards.

A&S 2015

Every second week will be singing (and maybe later dancing) and is a perfectly nice way to relax on your Sunday. Check the email list or Facebook for a guideline to which week it is.

In the other weeks-

We're going Italian in readiness for Coronation next year. Mostly of these topics are not things Agnes can teach, so please stick your hand up if you're keen to run a session! Coming projects are:

Men's and Women's garb (separate sessions) (pending interest)...

Underwear

Feast gear

Food/snacks/beverages

Hats and Headwear

Jewellery / accessories / belts

Fans (They look awesome)

How to do lacing

Workshops for newbie's and kids

A 'fashion runway' at some stage (earlier) would be awesome for people who have Italian to show/tell those of us who don't.

Agnes will try to advise what each session will be the week before (hopefully, even earlier if possible) to allow time to get ready and plan to come. She can wrangle some supplies too, but will need to know numbers. Again, let her know you're coming via email or Facebook.
