Chronic Ramblings

Greetings to you all,

We come to the end of my tenure as Chronicler for Southron Gaard, at the turn of the SCA New Year. Your new Chronicler will also be from Away, and I hope that you will enjoy From the Tower as much or more under a new hand as you have under mine.

As mentioned previously, another change has come to us, namely the clicking over of a new year. We are now in AS 48, and only a short two years (not quite two weeks) from our 50th Anniversary year. While there is a big celebration planned in the United States, it might not be too early to start thinking about ways that we could celebrate more locally. It may also be a great opportunity to share more with the general public; with displays, events and demonstrations.

Finally, don't forget about the new groups! The folks in Timaru are having a workshop day on the 25th May and are still looking for people to take classes, and there will be a Midwinter camp event in Dunedin in early July. I hope to see you at both of these!

Fare you all well for now and the future.

YiS,

Álfrún Jóhansdóttir

Their Excellencies Speak

Hello everyone, we hope this finds you well.

We heard a week or so back that a recent recipient of an award was approached by another member of the populace, who asked them what they'd got their award for. Being of modest and sanguine disposition, the person being asked said they weren't sure and did not rise to a discussion of why they thought they deserved it. They are of the sort whom I am sure don't particularly care about awards.

As it happens, this person received it for their behind-the-scenes work, mostly in the kitchen, and providing transport for people and things - making sure that people got fed. They have never asked for recognition, and the amount of time they spend working was much greater than the amount of time they spent socialising at any event they attend.

However, We're fairly sure that it's SCA custom to not ask people about why they got their awards. If you don't know why someone got an award, or don't think they deserve it, rather than asking them questions which could be interpreted as a demand for proof they do, it may be best to stop and think that they might have got it for work of which you are unaware. If you don't go to all, or many, events, and/or you do not share their particular social circle, they may have been doing things you have simply not witnessed. Certainly they may not have told you they were doing x or y for the group if their contact with you was limited anyway.

There are also many kinds of service which are not carried out at events, and are therefore known only to a few.

In any case, the recipient of an award is not responsible for their getting it. They do not decide who receives it; that responsibility ultimately lies with the Crown, and those who recommend them.

If you feel that their award was unjust, or that others who had done work of a similar level have gone unnoticed and unrewarded, then feel free to tell us or the Crown. We are always happy to promote recognition for those whom the populace feel merit it, as no doubt are they.

At least one of us will be attending the attending the camping event in Dunedin in early July. It's a long way to come, but closer than Australia - come if you can!

Yours in Service

Oswyn and Isabel Maria

Seneschal's Comments

As you will see from perusing the minutes of the April Baronial Council meeting elsewhere in this newsletter, the process of establishing a new canton in Dunedin has taken another step, with the Council's approval of the group's application to Kingdom.

For those of us who may not have been following this so closely, the story so far: at Canterbury Faire, we were approached by several Dunedin people about how a new group might be formed. Since the Kingdom Seneschal was at hand, we were able to advise most of the procedural details then and there. After Faire, Their Excellencies and I consulted and discussed with the potential new group about what is required of a canton, what would be expected, and some of the common pitfalls.

The application to Kingdom has these parts: Preliminary Application Form ("I, xxxx, propose that a new canton be formed"), Preliminary Petition ("We, the following 15 or more people, support this proposal") and agreement between Groups ("We, the Barony, agree to support this new canton"). If the Kingdom Seneschal and her advisors agree, and when a name has been registered with the College of Heralds, the new group can be declared "the Incipient Canton of X".

At this stage, during the Incipiency, the people of the new group have an opportunity to work together and learn how to be a group, without the burden of admin and the other carry-on of actually being a group.

After a year or up to two years, the health of the new group is reviewed, and all looking well, the Incipient Canton becomes a real Canton and starts flying solo.

In the background to all of this are the ghosts of previous groups in Dunedin, and a thought "will this be a repeat?" Nothing is certain about these things, but it would be foolish to be paralysed by the possibility of failure. Looking around other parts of our Kingdom, one sees this. St Lazarus is the third incarnation of that college in WA, Abertridwr was closed for several years before it reformed and could become a barony in the near future. A couple of Queensland groups formed from the ashes of an old one. Even our own Barony has had its rocky moments in the past.

Only time will tell.

Lowrens

Seneschal
Southron Gaard

We, Oswyn and Isabel Maria, Baron and Baroness of Southron Gaard, in great appreciation of heraldic display,
wish to encourage the Populace of Southron Gaard to utilise personal heraldry and, to that end, We announce the

Baronial Heraldic Challenge

Noting the plethora of silk standards, We wish to encourage other manners of displaying personal heraldry. Therefore, there shall be prizes awarded in the following categories:

- ✠ Gonfalon or Banner – for displaying ones device or Arms
- ✠ Attire (military or civilian) – to proclaim ones identity
- ✠ Crest (suitable for combat) – to announce ones identity on the field
- ✠ Other – to name ones possessions

We look forward to viewing a great display of heraldic splendour at a Pas d'Armes that shall be held no earlier than late August.

We invite you all to design or re-discover your device or Arms and to take this opportunity to put them to use to the glory of Southron Gaard.

By our hand

Oswyn & Isabel Maria

Southron Gaard Council Meeting

Wednesday 10th April 2013

PRESENT: Niamh (Elena), Melina (Quentin), Betty (Lucia), Agate (Maheshti), Bevan (Calach), Bob (Callum), Nigel (Bjorn), Richard (Richard), Sara, Carl (HE Oswyn), Damon (Darayavaush), Will (Maximillian), Clare (Antonia), Scott (Lowrens)

APOLOGIES: Christine (Isolde), Alan (Angus), Miriam (HE Isabel Maria)

MEETING OPENED: 7:30pm

PREVIOUS MINUTES: Richard noted that the comment "We can afford commercial storage for a year or two..." was not his, nor did he necessarily agree with it. So noted, these minutes were accepted.

BUSINESS ARISING: Contrary to original planning, Richard noted that a hired trailer was not used for equipment for Baronial Anniversary, but it would have been a good idea, and would have worked OK.

OFFICER REPORTS:

B&B (Oswyn and Isabel Maria):

Correspondence with the Seneschal re the new groups in Dunedin; with members of the populace in Dunedin and Kingdom Seneschal regarding the new group; with members of the populace regarding Crown and event bids; with Kingdom Seneschal regarding Crown bids and procedure for event bids and demos; with Kingdom Seneschal and HE Yoshi and other members of the populace regarding the position of Baronial historian; with the Seneschal and members of the populace regarding a possible demo; with members of the populace and Kingdom Seneschal regarding the Crown Event Handbook; with the new Reeve.

Attended a BA fighters' practice, one of far fewer than should be.

As with last year, we are keen to hear from officers regarding any plans they have for their offices and activities, but no worries if not. We are also keen to hear how officers felt Faire went for them in their role as officers or Stewards, what they would like to change, and how they think it can be improved.

SENESCHAL (Lowrens): Correspondence with Antonia, Bjorn, Waipara BB camp re event bids for CF2014; with Mýrún and B&B re Yule event bid; with Mýrún re BA images and summary details for the newsletter; with Kingdom Lists and B&B re Lists office; with Elena re BA details; with Mýrún and B&B re Chronicler applicants; with Richard and Maheshti re Reeve changeover; with Melisande re Baronial Library; with Thorald re deputy herald office; with Eleanora re Webwright office; with Taddea, Amalie, Richard and others re sundry follow ups to CF 2013; with B&B and Lewenhardt re new group paperwork and related stuff; with Tycho and others re a demo event at Wigram on 13 April, with HE Yoshi and B&B re Baronial historian office.

Attended UCMRS Tabard Event. Attended BA. No cultural or other real SCA activities (sigh).

REEVE (Richard and Maheshti): Agate and Richard have begun the handover. Working on the Doomsday report for kingdom together. Agate has most of the files and all of the electronic financial records; some correspondence to be transferred. The final CF report is still being reviewed.

Total Assets $27,220.55

Total Liabilities $508.00

Net Worth $26,712.55

HERALD (Lucia): Since last council, I attended and heralded BA, and have received a submission. Now that life is starting to settle into a routine (keeping fingers crossed on this one!), I will be able to start working on the backlog of queries/ideas from members of the populace wishing to make a name/device submission.

I have also received correspondence from the Webwright on some Baronial webpages that need to be updated. All going well, I should have the information back to the Webwright to make the updates before next council.

ARTS AND SCIENCES (Isolde): Recent focus has been on get-togethers at The Make Café in Riccarton. There has been really good feedback about this venue; more specifically it has a large room, large tables/sewing machines/irons available that seem really conducive to group work. Feedback also was that it was better than meeting at people's homes as this can sometimes be an obstacle if somebody is already tentative about attending. Plan is to make use of this café (also works well in that people can buy coffees/snacks/sewing bits as they need) while we can. The owners seem really pleased to have us there.

Planning has been underway for The Viking Project and this is all set to start towards the end of this month with weekly-fortnightly classes and get-togethers. The ideal thing would be that a viking type event take place in say 3 months as it often helps peoples focus to be making something in preparation for actually being able to wear it.

Mistress Cristia is the facilitator of the Viking Project. Another idea in the pipeline is a weekend of pattern drafting and sewing, to take place at Showbiz - yet to be confirmed. Christine from Ildhafn would facilitate this.

CHRONICLER (Mýrún): Correspondence and phone call with Seneschal, B&B re Yule bid and Crown bid, applications for Chronicler role. Correspondence with populace re Yule Quill competition. April FTT put out a few days late primarily due to late columns.

WEBWRIGHT (Eleanora): In the past month I have set up the new Reeve's email address, populace page, Regnum and gallery access and sent her details for the SG officers' and Financial committee lists. Requested details of baronial awards and champions from the Herald although as I see they are in FTT I'll just copy them out from there. Updated some court details for Their Excellencies. Re-advertised my position on the list, but no bites as yet. I'm still making and adding badges to the Regnum.

CHATELAINE (Quentin): Attended the Ordo Cygni Tabard event, and BA. One item of loaner garb out; returned nicely washed and folded (!).

QUARTERMASTER (Angus): No report received.

CONSTABLE (Bjorn): Correspondence with Seneschal re CF bid. Attended the Ordo Cygni event and BA. Most lost property from BA accounted for. Still lots of property from CF.

MARSHALL (Callum): Attended BA. Marshalled heavy and boffer.

CAPTAIN OF ARCHERS (Darayavaush): Attended BA, and had an IKAC. Weather, Easter, and mundane stuff have hampered some practices. Attendance is still 6-10 archers to the line each week. The last IKAC had four new archers posted to the scores list, some with their first scores.

CAPTAIN OF RAPIER (Elena): Practice has been relatively well attended on both Sundays and the occasional Tuesday session. Baronial Anniversary Tournament was held successfully, complete with visiting participants from Auckland. We had our new marshal in Training run the tournament, which is a very good sign and will help us maintain our ability to run tourney's down the track.

Captain to follow up with Lord Raffe to discuss use of ShowBiz for winter practices.

CHIRURGEON (Kotek): Nothing to report.

EVENT REPORTS:

BA: Elena reported: lots of positive feedback; full bond will be refunded despite some small damage. A full report at next Council.

YULE BID: Lady Mýrún withdrew her bid for Yule, which was discussed last month, and presented a proposal and budget for a local midwinter event. Discussion noted the tight budget (20c surplus on a $650 budget), but for a small event, the exposure is also small. Proposal was approved by all.

CANTERBURY FAIRE 2014: Two bids were lodged, this being the closing date. Each team made a brief presentation of their bid, and answered questions.

- Antonia/Maximillian - theme based on the expected appearance of a comet in November, sign of ill omen, likelihood of war and unrest. Proposed a rest day midweek, as was done several years ago. Reviewing options for online payment by overseas people. Some small price increase over 2013, to cover general creepage in costs. If this bid is accepted, anticipate having a schedule by August.
- Bjorn/Thorald/Callum - theme based on Tudor England and War of the Roses. Proposed Opening Court early Sunday afternoon, to allow Equestrian to take place within the event (all Saturday and Sunday morning as setup), and Closing Court on Saturday afternoon. Breakfast to be separated from Meal Plan and booked separately, since it costs money, but relatively few people turn up for it. Wednesday to be a relatively quiet day, although not specifically a rest day.

There was some brief looking at budgets but not in any depth. Both teams to present budgets to Lowrens to circulate to the Financial Committee for detailed review.

GENERAL BUSINESS:

DUNEDIN CANTON - Application for proposed new canton in Dunedin. Lowrens announced (just in case people did not already know) that a group of people in Dunedin wish to form a Canton.

Oswyn recounted the series of conversations with Lewwnhart re the Barony's expectation of activity in the new group - 2-3 events per year - and a focus on strengthening the group rather than precipitate acts of display and pageantry.

Question was asked whether any members of former groups were going to be involved. As far as (Oswyn) knows, Mýrún has offered her services as herald to the new group.

Question raised whether when Wildmor is established as a Canton, its officers and Council will still be required to report to the parent group Baronial Council and will their official events still need to be passed by Southron Gaard's Council, rather than being required only to report to their Kingdom superiors, and to inform us as only a courtesy? It was Council's understanding that this is the case, i.e. that they will.

Lowrens noted that there were no guarantees of success for the group, but this was no reason not to try. Antonia noted the need to deal with registering names and devices: the proposal to Kingdom includes a submission to register "Wildmoor", and a device can follow in due course. Lowrens reminded that while the new Canton was incipient (1-2 years, usually), it was fully part of the Barony and did not have its own officers.

Approval to support the proposed new canton passed unanimously.

OFFICE OF BARONIAL HISTORIAN - HE Matsuyama Yoshitoshi proposed a "Baronial Historian, charged to collect and compile materials relating to the history of the Barony of Southron Gaard and compose a chronicle of this history to be available to the people of the Barony and the Kingdom."

The brief is pretty much the same as for the Kingdom historian, except at the Baronial level. We don't have strong feelings about how long the warrant should last, and fairly relaxed ideas about the expected work output. We'd like them to:

- keep track of baronial customs, awards and relics,
- record the winners of the baronial events (and shire events before that),
- create and maintain a record of who has done what in the barony in terms of service or other distinction,
- create and maintain a diplomatic and non-accusatory history of the group.

Meeting approved Seneschal to call for provisional applications, with each applicant to say what they would bring to the role, for consideration at a future Council.

Discussion also raised the notion of a Baronial Keeper of Regalia, whose role would include keeping track of where items such as the Relics were. No decision reached.
